CalChamber Advocacy Op-Ed by Dee Dee Myers: "Extending CalCompetes is Key to Job Growth and State-Wide Investments"

GO-Biz Director Dee Dee Myers recently penned a CalChamber Advocacy op-ed that explains why state incentives like the CalCompetes Tax Credit and Grant programs – which received additional funding in Governor Gavin Newsom’s revised budget proposal – will continue to play a key role in California’s post-pandemic economic recovery.

Read the full op-ed and share with your network.
Indian Roots, American Soil Survey 2022

In partnership with the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), GO–Biz invites all California–based Indian-owned businesses to participate in the Indian Roots, American Soil survey. The information requested in the survey will be used to assist in the development of a report that highlights the significant role that Indian–owned enterprises play in California and the United States, ultimately supporting a more holistic assessment of areas of opportunity to promote growth-oriented programs.

Exporting 101: Pathways to International Markets

Fresno CITD
August 24 and November 9, 2022
All Sectors

Register for your preferred date using the links provided above.

The Fresno Center for International Trade Development (CITD) has partnered with the State Center Community College District, the U.S. Commercial Service, and GO–Biz to offer this introductory export training, which will take place twice in 2022. Participants will learn about the process of exporting U.S. products, keys for successful exporting, the export documentation process, and much more. Anyone who is considering exporting is encouraged to attend, from entrepreneurs to business students. Members of any industry will benefit from this workshop, but target industries include manufacturing, equipment, and food and beverages. Please contact Frank M. Nuñez with any questions regarding this event. Use code EXPORTGBIZ to receive a 25% discount on your registration fee.

Please see the event flyer for further details.

Advanced Manufacturing Business Development Mission
This trade mission will assist U.S. businesses in the advanced manufacturing sector to identify export opportunities in Indonesia, Singapore, and Japan. These markets present excellent opportunities for U.S. businesses because of their strength and projected growth in advanced manufacturing, as well as their strategic location in the Asia Pacific region. The event will include group interaction with government agencies and industry experts, promotional opportunities at the Industrial Transformation Asia-Pacific (ITAP) trade show, and customized one-on-one business appointments with pre-screened potential agents, distributors, partners, and buyers. Please contact Eve Lerman or Dusan Marinkovic with any questions regarding this event. Businesses who qualify for STEP funding may be eligible for funding to subsidize the cost of participation, depending on funding availability. Please contact Henan Li to learn more.

Please see the event website for further details.

2022 Select LA Investment Summit
World Trade Center LA and LA County EDC
June 22–23, 2022
Los Angeles

Register for this event.

World Trade Center LA and the LA County Economic Development Corporation will be jointly hosting the 2022 Select LA Investment Summit, the region’s only event focused on attracting and connecting international companies to the LA area. The 2022 event will focus on global sustainability with special emphasis on hydrogen, electric vehicles, climate infrastructure, and the circular economy. Select LA provides international and local businesses with a comprehensive understanding of the region’s investment ecosystem with actionable insights. that can guide key business decisions. Through matchmaking technology and over four hours of networking, Select LA offers the perfect environment to create and foster new relationships that result in investment opportunities. There will be an array of opportunities to match international investors with local partners, such as table exhibits, one-on-one interactions, plenary panels, and breakout sessions led by local and international executives. Just as important as a connection is understanding the local processes and protocol to ensure successful transactions, which is why attendees will include state and local government officials in addition to private businesses. Summit Passes can be purchased by non-LAEDC members for $349 – but attendees traveling from outside of the U.S. can register to attend for free!

Indie Campers is a campervan rental company headquartered in Portugal. After becoming a leader in the RV rental market in Europe with operations in 15 countries, they decided to start their U.S. expansion. Given California's huge market for tourism and strong camping culture, they chose to start their footprint in Los Angeles. Since their launch in 2021, Indie Campers has opened 7 more locations across the U.S., including a second California branch in San Francisco.

Indie Campers’ goal is to become the world’s #1 road trip marketplace and improve the camping experience. They see challenges as opportunities and look forward to continuing to grow in California.
