BUDGET
REQUEST | $9.5M

The California Advanced Air Mobility Corridors Initiative (CAAMCI) of the Monterey Bay Tech Hub will launch testing corridors for clean-energy-powered defense drones and other advanced aerospace systems — boosting R&D, filling infrastructure gaps, and supporting job growth.

TRI-COUNTY REGION OF SANTA CRUZ, SAN BENITO, AND MONTEREY

Rural | Underserved | Majority Minority

THE PROMISE OF CALIFORNIA ADVANCED AIR MOBILITY CORRIDORS INITIATIVE (CAAMCI)

- ✧ Rooted in Equity
- ✧ Scalable Economic Growth
- ✧ Transformational Innovation
- ✧ Advancing California's Leadership in Defense and Aerospace

YOU CAN'T SOAR IF YOU'RE GROUNDED

PROBLEM: California lacks a dedicated testbed with coordinated flight corridors.

- ✈ CA has the largest concentration of Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) in the US – but they have to test and certify aircraft elsewhere.
- ✈ Other states – Ohio, New York, Nevada, Texas, Florida, Colorado, and Georgia – are significantly ahead in this race.

WARNING! California risks losing competitive edge and economic opportunities if we don't act.

BUILD IT AND THEY WILL COME

SOLUTION: CAAMCI will establish California's first FAA-compliant testing corridors for clean-energy powered defense drones and advanced aerospace vehicles.

- ✈ Boost R&D, infrastructure, innovation, and workforce
- ✈ Build on the existing presence of OEMs by attracting international manufacturers, investors, and increasing recruiting capabilities
- ✈ Drive innovation, training, and economic growth
